BEST BEACHES IN SAINT TROPEZ

THE BEACH TOUR

Embark on a Coastal Journey from the Port of Saint-Tropez to Ramatuelle, where the Enchanting Saint Tropez Beaches Unfold along a 10 km Stretch of Scenic Coastline, Each More Exquisite than the Previous.

From the Bustling Town to the Secluded Wilderness, Encounter a Variety of Beaches with Diverse Personalities, Ranging from Expansive Sandy Shores to Delightful Hidden Coves.

As You Reach the Conclusion of this Mesmerizing Journey in Ramatuelle, Behold the Region's Most Renowned Beach: Pampelonne. It is Here, Where the Legendary Tale of Saint Tropez Originated, Creating an Iconic Legacy.

If you like it Chic: Pampelonne

Haute Retreats favourites hot spots include Pamplonne Beach at one of the most legendary beaches in Saint-Tropez, with the Ramatuelle commune as its proud seat.

Over 5 km long, Pampelonne seems like an infinite stretch of white sand and turquoise water dotted with renowned beach clubs, like the famed Tiki Beach.

Getting there:

You can reach Pampelonne Beach easily by car and park in one of the many lots that surround it. Follow the route des plages, or beach route, for easy access.

It's also possible to reach Pampelonne by bus, or even on foot, wandering your way to this celebrated stretch of sand.

Not to be missed:

A stop at the Club 55 is a must at the beach's southern end. Originally a family-run hut, this restaurant has become a favourite haunt for locals and informed visitors alike, thanks to its fine cuisine and welcoming atmosphere.

The perfect spot for families: Salins

Located a little further south, set up camp at Salina Beach. Far from the city's hustle and bustle. It is perfect for an idyllic setting for lunch under an elegant parasol with the sea lapping at your feet. Calm and sheltered from the wind, this beach is ideal for families.

In the afternoon, let your children build sandcastles while you bask in the sun from a lounge chair. And if you want ideas of activities for your little ones, see our suggestions of things to do for unforgettable family holidays to Saint Tropez.

Getting there:

Salins beach is only 6 km from the heart of Saint Tropez, easily accessible through the charming Parc de la Mouette.

Simply pull into the free parking lot and take the short shaded stroll to this family oasis. Otherwise, take the route des Salins to discover the beach's private side.

Not to be missed:

Le Salins restaurant serves fish and seafood on the menu, for the youngsters, opt for a table beside the pizza bar, unless you prefer a meal on the terrace to enjoy the view.

Here, Mediterranean flavours inspire the cuisine, though traditional French dishes feature on the menu as well. To complete the picture, take advantage of the private tables at your disposal!

Perfect for divers FLOLAUDIS COVE

A wild and preserved place on the Saint Tropez coast, Flolaudis Cove is a well-shaded beach bordered by scrubland. Le neighbouring Chateau Emile Ollivier was acquired by Napoleon's former minister, who lends his name to the property.

On the Flolaudis beach, you feel alone in the world. When swimming, think to bring shoes as the sea bed can become quite rocky. Divers in particular flock to this Saint Tropez beach.

We recommend parking in the lot near Salins beach, follow the Sentiers des Douaniers which will lead you to the cove via a small staircase, that is how you will reach Flolaudis Cove.

After a long day of diving, come home to Domaine des Salins, in a setting combining woodwork and contemporary decoration. Settle into your room for a well-deserved break before sipping a spritz on your raised terrace.

CULTURE AT PONCHE AND FONTANETTE BEACHES

On the edge of one of the oldest parts of Saint-Tropez are the two neighbouring beaches of Ponche and Fontanette, one of sand and the other of pebbles. Locals meet here for traditional festivals and popular gatherings.

Come to savour your morning coffee on the terrace a few feet from the water. Take a dip before heading off on the Sentier du Littoral towards Ramatuelle, discovering the other beaches of Saint-Tropez. And if you are tempted by a boat trip, come aboard the unmissable Phenix Deixi.

The twin beaches of La Ponche and Fontanette, nestled at the foot of charming fishermen's houses, can only be reached on foot from the port of Saint-Tropez or the citadel. A ladder is available for access to the sea.
